Indo Amines Limited	Transferee Company	78,018.43	21,302.93

b) Whether the transaction would fall within the Related Party Transactions, if yes whether the same is done at arm's length:

Yes, the transaction shall be considered a 'Related Party Transaction' under the SEBI Listing Regulations. The consideration for the Scheme will be discharged at "Arm's Length" basis. The consideration of the amalgamation of the Transferor Company to shareholders of the Transferor Company has been arrived based on joint share entitlement report issued by Mr. Arun Rajendra Lahoti, Registered Valuer (Registration No. IBBI/RV/06/2018/10115) and Corporate Capital Venture Private Limited, SEBI Registered Category I, Merchant Banker (Registration No. INM000012276).

Area of Business of the entity (ies): As per Point 1.

c) Rational for the Scheme of Amalgamation:

The proposed amalgamation would be in the best interest of the Parties and their respective shareholders, employees, creditors and other stakeholders as the proposed amalgamation will yield advantages as set out inter alia below:

1. The Companies believe that the combined business will augment industry-leading revenue growth and profitability. Further, the Companies expect that their combined balance sheet will provide diverse strategic options and flexibility arising from cost efficiencies and synergies such as optimization of sales, general and administration costs.
2. Amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company will provide an opportunity to leverage combined assets and build a stronger sustainable business. Specifically, the amalgamation will enable optimal utilization of existing resources and provide an opportunity to fully leverage strong assets, capabilities, experience, expertise and infrastructure of both the companies. The merged entity will also have sufficient funds required at lower cost than what Transferor Company borrowed for meeting its long term capital & working capital.

3. Strengthened strong position in the industry, in terms of the assets base, revenues, product range, production volumes, integrated supply chain and market share of the combine entity.
4. Greater efficiency in cash management by cost saving for all the Companies as they are capitalizing on each other's core competency and a resource which is expected to result in stability of operations, cost savings and higher profitability levels for the Amalgamated Company.
5. Greater integration, financial strength and flexibility for the amalgamated company, which would result in improved overall shareholders value.
6. Simplified management structure, leading to better administration and reduction in costs from more focused operational efforts, rationalization, standardization and simplification of business processes, elimination of duplication, reduction in multiplicity of legal and regulatory compliances and rationalization of administration expenses.

As a result, the Board of Directors of Transferor Company and Transferee Company are proposing this Scheme under Section 230 to 232 of the Companies Act, 2013, which they believe is in the best interest of the shareholders and creditors.

d) In case of cash consideration - amount or otherwise share exchange ratio:

There is no cash consideration. The share exchange ratio based on the Valuation Report of Mr. Arun Rajendra Lahoti, Registered Valuer and the Company has obtained the Fairness Opinion on the Valuation Report from M/s. Corporate Capital Venture Private Limited, SEBI Registered Category I, Merchant Banker.

In consideration of the Scheme, the Company shall issue and allot shares in the following manner:

"537 (Five Hundred Thirty Seven) equity shares of Rs. 5/- each (Rupees Five Only) fully paid up of the Company for Every 10 (Ten) equity shares of Rs. 100/- (Rupees One Hundred Only) each fully paid up held by the shareholders of Pious Engineering Private Limited ("Transferor Company")"
