Functional departmental heads shall submit to the Responsible Person the details of proposed transaction(s) with details/ draft contract/ draft agreement or other supporting documents justifying that the transactions are on arms' length basis and in ordinary course of business at prevailing market rate.

Based on this note, Company Secretary will appropriately take it up for necessary prior approvals from the Audit Committee at its next meeting and convey back the decision to the originator.

For implementing the provisions under this Policy, the Board and the Audit Committee of Directors of the Company shall receive timely, full, and sufficient information about the Transactions covered under this Policy.

V. PROCEDURES TO DEAL WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

This Policy will operate within the framework of the Companies Act 2013, rules there under and the SEBI Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time. The policy prescribes that.

A. All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications shall require prior approval of Audit Committee of the Company.

Prior approval of the Audit committee shall be also required for:

1. RPTs where Company's subsidiary is a party, but the Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction, whether entered individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds 10% of the consolidated turnover of the Company, as per the last audited financial statements of the Company;
2. RPT's to which the Company's subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of such subsidiary. (Applicable w.e.f April 1, 2023)

However, prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall not be required for the following transactions:

- RPTs where a listed subsidiary of the Company is a party, but the Company is not a party, if Regulation 23 and 15(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.

In case of related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a Listed Subsidiary as referred as above, prior approval of the audit committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

- Transactions entered by the Company with wholly owned subsidiaries whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- Transactions between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- Transactions related to the payment of remuneration and sitting fees by the Company or any of its subsidiaries to its directors, key managerial personnel, or senior management, excluding those who are part of the promoter or promoter group, provided such transactions are not material.
- Transactions or arrangements exempted under the Act and/or Listing Regulations.

Provided that Members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, shall only approve the related party transactions.

- i. Transactions shall be accompanied with Management's justification: The Audit Committee before approving any transactions will look into the interest of the Company and its Stakeholders in carrying out the Transactions and other related benefits. The Committee may accordingly approve or modify such transactions, in accordance with this policy.
- ii. Omnibus Approval by the Audit Committee:

In the case of Transactions which are frequent/ regular/ repetitive in nature, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval to those transactions subject to the following conditions:

1. The Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval;

2. The Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
3. Such omnibus approval shall specify:
 - a. The name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction/ maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into;
 - b. The indicative base price/ current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any;
 - c. such other conditions as the Committee may deem fit.

Provided further that where the need of RPT's cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, the Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs. 1 Crore per transaction.

4. The Committee shall review at least on a quarterly basis, the details of RPT's entered by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given. The audit Committee Shall also review the Status of long term i.e. more than one year or recurring RPT's on an Annual Basis.
5. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one financial year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of such financial year.

B. All Material Related Party Transactions (MRPTs) shall require approval of shareholders:

All Material Related Party Transactions ('MRPT's') and subsequent Material Modifications thereof shall require prior approval of shareholders through Resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not. The notice along with explanatory statement being sent to the shareholders seeking approval for any proposed RPT's shall, in addition to the requirements as mentioned under the Companies Act, 2013.

However, the prior approval of Shareholders is not required in the following Cases:

- c) Transactions entered into between two Wholly Owned Subsidiaries of the listed holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

Provided that prior approval of shareholders of the Company shall not be required for RPTs where listed subsidiary is a party, but the Company is not a party if regulation 23 and 15(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary. In case of related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a Listed Subsidiary as referred as above, prior approval of the shareholders of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

VI. REFERENCE TO/ APPROVAL OF THE BOARD:

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case suo-moto elects to review any such matter, or it is mandatory under any law for the Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

VII. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY:

In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction that has not been approved under this Policy or has exceeded the approved limit, the transaction shall be placed before the Audit Committee within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the Audit Committee, whichever is earlier, for ratification. The Audit Committee, consisting of Independent Directors, may ratify the Related Party Transaction subject to the following conditions:

- i. The value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;
- ii. The transaction is not material;
- iii. The rationale for the inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the Audit Committee at the time of seeking ratification;
- iv. The details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions with the Stock Exchanges;
- v. Any other condition as specified by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall also review the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such a Related Party Transaction under this Policy and shall take any action it deems appropriate, including revision or termination of the transaction. Failure to seek ratification of the Audit Committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the Audit Committee. If the transaction is with a related party to any director or has been authorized by any other director, the concerned director(s) shall indemnify the Company against any loss incurred by it.

Further, in connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee shall have the authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.
